

Are your child's MMR vaccinations up to date?

Over 102,000 children starting primary school in England are at risk of catching measles.

If your child has missed their first or second dose of the MMR vaccine, contact your GP practice to book an appointment.

If you are unsure if your child is due a vaccination or has missed a vaccination, check their red book or contact your GP practice.

